Council Introduces Ordinance Setting Up Disaster Organization

An ordinance setting up a Redwood City disaster council was introduced this week at a city council session.

The ordinance would name the mayor as commander of disaster relief forces and make the city manager the vice commander.

It also sets up these relief divisions: Police, fire, medical, public works, transportation, communication, personnel and recruitment and Red Cross.

Purpose of the ordinance, Councilman Floyd Granger said, was to make it possible for disaster workers to receive state protection in event of injuries.

Last night the council also:

Referred to City Mrg. E. A. Rolison a protest by Annie Offerman against the installation of a vault in a sidewalk in front of her property on Jefferson Ave. between El Camino Real and Southern Pacific Co. tracks.

Agreed to give George J. Larson of San Francisco title to a tax delinquent lot at the corner of Redwood Ave. and Regent St. if he pays taxes delinquent since 1929 and half the tax delinquency penalties.

Cancelled $6955 worth of appropriations against a post war capital outlay fund of $8009.98 and made $2733 worth of new appropriations leaving a balance of $5275.91.

Referred to the planning commission an application by Anthony Cataldo for permission to install a used car lot on El Camino Real at Edgewood Rd.

Referred to the traffic and safety commission a request by the Redwood Nash Motors Co. for two loading zones in front of its building at 1026 El Camino Real. The firm said it wanted the zones to park its two emergency vehicles.

Officially appointed five men to terms on the personnel board. The appointments were originally made at the last meeting before the new personnel ordinance took effect.

Introduced a new animal shelter ordinance which increases the rates for boarding dogs there and gives the poundman power to take dogs out of public buildings or off private property they may be damaging illegally.

Accepted a deed to a parking lot on Perry St.

Approved a park and recreation commission suggestion that $276 be spent for the purchase of 80 metal lockers for the new recreation building.

Introduced an ordinance changing the name of Hampton St. and Louisiana St. to Hampton Ave., Hampton Way to McNulty Way, Hampton Ln. to Ryan Ln., and Halsey Ave. to McGarvey Ave.

Authorized City Atty. Cuthbert B. Currie to prepare papers by which it can sell Community Park to the state for a National Guard armory site for $1.

Referred to the traffic and safety commission a suggestion that diagonal parking to be installed on Arguello St.

Coastside Ambulance Plan Sought

A plan to give the Coastside ambulance coverage is to be worked out as a result of a meeting today of the County Board of Supervisors and Coastside residents.

Dr. Harold Chope, director of the health department, was given the green light by the board on devising a way in which the Coastside could be given better service without a great increase in the cost of the ambulance operation.

The residents had appealed to the board for better service, claiming that at times delays of an hour or more occur before an ambulance reaches the scene of an accident.

Dr. Chope made a suggestion, along which lines he was told to work out a detailed plan. He proposed that an ambulance, a 1937 model now retired from service, be placed on the Coastside at a central point and operated by a member of some fire department.

This ambulance, which he said is not good for long trips, would take the injured persons to doctors on the Coastside. The doctors there could give emergency treatment, and release the patient if further aid was not necessary.

The best location for such an ambulance probably would be Half Moon Bay. The ambulance could serve the central and south Coastside, while the Sharp Park area could be covered by the ambulances operated out of Daly City or South San Francisco.

The Daly City ambulance is operated by a policeman on a call basis. The county's two new ambulances operate from Community Hospital, the sheriff's office and from South San Francisco, depending on the time of the day.

Dr. Chope said that through March the ambulances handled 2159 calls, 1299 of them of an emergency nature. Only 41 calls were made to the Coastside, 30 of them emergency, and most of them on weekends.

A full 24-hour service on the Coastside would be prohibitive in cost for the volume of traffic handled, he said.

Trio Held Here On Drunk Charge

Three members of a Palo Alto family were booked on charges of drunkenness during the weekend.

Albert Simons, 24, 2376 Poplar Ave., a switchman, was arrested in East Palo Alto on a charge of drunkenness at 9:30 p.m. Saturday. His wife, Bette, 28, was arrested at 2:40 a.m. Sunday on a charge of drunken driving, and her mother, Mrs. Jean Franzen, 56, on a charge of drunk about an automobile. All the arrests were made by Special Dep. Sheriff John Lemon.

Three persons were arrested by the California Highway Patrol on charges of drunken driving during the weekend. They are Mack McCrimmon, 21, a sailor stationed at Treasure Island, arrested on El Camino Real in Colma Saturday night; Nolan F. Bussell, 24, of San Bruno, on El Camino Real in Lomita Park, early yesterday, and Arthur A. Boni, 38, San Francisco, on Bayshore Hwy. near Brisbane early Sunday after an accident.

Ty Cobb Seeks Shares of Stock

Baseball's Georgia Peach, Ty Cobb, has filed suit in superior court to get 100 shares of stock which he claims is due him from his divorced wife.

Cobb, who lives at 48 Spencer Ln., Atherton, stated that he had possession of the stock, in the Coca Cola International Corp. but that it is in the name of his ex-wife, Charlie.

According to the terms of their divorce agreement, Mrs. Cobb, 1210 Bay Laurel Rd., Menlo Park, was to endorse the stock over to him, Cobb claimed, adding that she has refused to do so.

The couple married in Augusta, Ga., on Aug. 7, 1908 and the divorce was granted in Reno last June 17. There are five children.

Police Officer Sues for $25,612

A San Bruno police officer who was hurt when the patrol car he was driving was involved in an accident and burned today filed suit in superior court here for $25,612.

Lawrence F. Pickett is suing Raymond F. Heinze, 33, of San Mateo, and the Guy F. Atkinson Co., Heinze's employer and owner of the car he was driving.

The accident occurred last Nov. 1 on El Camino Real in San Bruno. Pickett suffered broken fingers, neck and internal injuries.

Heinze was arrested on a drunk driving charge, pleaded guilty in superior court and was fined $500.

Greyhound Faces $26,977 Suit

A San Mateo nurse who was injured in a bus accident last June 21 has filed suit against the Pacific Greyhound Lines and one of its employes, Winfred Dowling, 28, of San Jose, for $26,977.

The suit was filed in superior court here by Mrs. Charlotte Kincaid, 8 Second Ave. She claimed that she was a passenger on the bus driven by Dowling when it collided with a car operated by Charles M. Hartzog, Burlingame.

She was standing at the time of the accident, Mrs. Kincaid stated, and was thrown to the floor, suffering hip, ankle and knee injuries. The accident occurred on El Camino Real at 12th Ave., San Mateo.

Deputies Raid Brisbane Club Again

Lightning is reported never to strike twice in the same place, but the same theory doesn't apply to the sheriff's office.

Eight deputy sheriffs, armed with an ax and a sledge hammer, raided Dick's Tower, Brisbane gambling establishment, about 12:30 a.m. Sunday, in the second raid of its type within two weeks.

The officers arrested two San Francisco men, who had been picked up two weeks ago and whose cases still are pending in the South San Francisco Justice of the Peace court. The men are Sam Omar, 38, and Herman Rosenbaum, 45. Each was released from jail after posting $500 bail.

Despite a reported "wolf-call" by a crooner in the bar, the sheriff's office trapped some 25 customers. None of them was arrested.

Chief Dep. Sheriff Walter Moore led the raid, and was backed up by Deps. Jack O'Brien, Milton Minehan, Paul Jensen, William Schade, John Hosford, Alvin Ludwig and Eugene Stewart.

Deputies were stationed at each of the establishment's four doors. Two doors lead from the bar into the back room which is used for gambling. Moore, wielding a sledge hammer, started to break down one of the inside doors, which was opened when the room's occupants heard that the deputies meant business.

According to the deputies, a lookout man was stationed outside and gave warning of the raid. A man inside the bar started singing in a "loud, high voice," which the deputies interpreted as a warning cry to the gambling patrons.

The deputies were not sure what the title of the song was, but it sounded to them like "Now is the Hour."

When the door was opened the deputies found that all of the customers had seized their belongings and donned their hats and coats.

The officers confiscated a dice table and a blackjack table. In addition $685 was seized from the cashier's cage and $78 from the dice table.

The two men who were arrested are to appear in Justice of the Peace John J. Fahey's court, but probably before an outside judge. At the time of the arraignment resulting from the previous arrests, Judge Fahey disqualified himself because he once represented John Bernardini, the owner of Dick's Tower.

Fire Dist. Tells Building Plans

Members of the board of fire commissioners of the Menlo Park Fire District have assured residents that they do not intend to build a fire station for several years if ever on property recently purchased at the corner of Hoover St. and Oak Grove Ave.

Commissioners told several residents that the property was purchased as an investment and that at a later date it may be exchanged for other property where a firehouse may be built.

Construction of a new firehouse has been opposed by residents of the area as creating a noise nuisance.

Injuries Bring Damage Action

Ole Olson, 54, of Baltimore, filed suit in superior court here for $33,876 as the result of injuries he suffered in an automobile accident in San Mateo.

Olson is suing Thomas B. Barrett, 35, a former San Mateo County resident who has moved to Vallejo. The accident occurred last Dec. 1 on El Camino Real at 28th Ave.

Barrett's car struck him as he was walking across the highway, Olson claimed, breaking his arm and inflicting numerous head and body abrasions.

Real Estate Man In Divorce Suit

Mrs. Virginia M. Orr, 744 Whipple Ave., has filed suit for divorce, charging her husband, San Carlos real estate man Justin Orr, with extreme cruelty.

Mrs. Orr is seeking custody of their daughter, Sharon, 13 months; reasonable support, which she interpreted at $250 a month; and all of the community property. The latter was listed as the home and its furnishings, and the White Oaks Realty, 968 El Camino Real, San Carlos.

They were married in Redwood City on May 29, 1943.

IT'S OFFICIAL—Bob Wondries (right) turns over the the official Redwood City Rodeo car to Carl Ferrell, general manager of this year's event. The automobile will be entered in several Northern California events to advertise the local affair. Its first outing will be at Livermore this weekend.

Construction Begins Sunday On Booths for Rodeo Here

Hammers and saws will sound out a melody of rhythm next Sunday when more than 100 volunteers begin work on construction of booths for Redwood City's Fourth of July celebration.

Bill Laing, construction chairman, explained that approximately two dozen booths will be erected to house the concessions that are planned at the rodeo grounds on Lower Broadway. He said that each of the sponsor organizations would have representatives Sunday to work on their own booths.

Laing added that the booths will be built in a semi-circle around the 100x100 dance floor and will funnel into the main entrance to the rodeo arena. He said the purpose of this was to give the concession operators assurance that they would not be placed in a spot where there is little or no traffic flow.

Laing pointed out that the Peninsula Celebrations Assn. would provide refreshments at noon for the volunteer workers.

He said that the PCA is supplying lumber, nails and some tools, but urged those who are able to do so to bring their own hammers and saws to make certain there are enough to go around.

At the same time, rodeo headquarters announced it has received an official Redwood City Rodeo car which will be entered in several Northern California parades prior to the local show, and would also be the chariot for the rodeo queen after she has been named.

The automobile was contributed by Bob Wondries.

Ravenswood to Graduate 97 Eighth Graders Next Week

Ninety-seven eighth grade students will receive diplomas at graduation exercises on Wednesday, June 16, at 8 p.m. in the court yard at the Ravenswood Elementary School.

The Rev. Donald F. Lehman, pastor of the East Palo Alto Community Church, will address the graduates. Patricia Leahy, editor of the school paper and honor student, will give the salutatory address.

Anne Fitzmaurice will present the class gift to Robert Reginato, who will represent the student body. Special music for the exercises will be provided by the school orchestra and chorus under the direction of Warren Bohn. Mrs. William Lawrence will be the accompanist.

Jo Ann Conkel, a member of the graduating class, will give a violin solo and Harold E. Goetze will be accompanist.

Reed Probst, president of the student body and honor student, will give the valedictory address. Paul R. Stouffer, principal of Ravenswood School, will present the class. Diplomas will be presented by Paul H. Henry, superintendent of the school district.

A reception in the school auditorium will follow the graduation exercises. Parents and friends of graduates are invited to attend.

Seek Rooms Here For Delegates

Melba Miller, School for Cerebral Palsied Children superintendent, today appealed for rooms for women teachers who will attend a summer school at the hospital from June 28 through Aug. 6.

She said that the teachers would be taking special work on the care of cerebral palsied children in order to teach them in other communities and that they urgently need rooming places for six weeks.

Those having rooms may register them with Miss Miller at 2610 Whipple Rd. or telephone EMerson 6-7552.

Dr. Willis Talks About Earthquakes

Dr. Bailey Willis, Stanford University expert on earthquakes, discussed these phenomena during a meeting of the San Carlos Kiwanis Club this week at the Villa Chartier.

Pres. Wendy Metcalfe presided.

Patsy Wins El Camino Bell Contest

Patsy McGaffigan, 13, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McGaffigan, 918 Durlston Rd., and Ted Norris, 11, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Norris, 1203 Hudson St., has been awarded first prizes in an El Camino bell contest sponsored by A. B. (Sam) Cheatham.

Cheatham, who is reerecting the only remaining Redwood City El Camino bell, offered miniature bronze bells to the two first-place winners in an essay contest concerning the bells. He also offered other miniature bells for the first prize winner in each of two age groups at each school.

Patsy, who attends Mt. Carmel School, was awarded the grand prize in the 7th and 8th grade groups for the entire city. Ted, who attends McKinley School, won the first prize for the 5th and 6th graders for the entire city.

Winners of school prizes in the 5th and 6th grade groups were Beatrice Bowen, Garfield; Shirley Baer, Hoover; Terry Warner, John Gill School; Eric Heimann, Lincoln; Norris, McKinley; David Stojanovich, Monroe; Claire Hahir, Mt. Carmel; Sandra Holmquist, Taft; and Emiliy Toledo, Washington.

Karen Barkas won the 7th and 8th grade prize at McKinley. Judges consisted of faculty representatives from each of the competing schools.

Shells Explode In $10,000 Blaze

A fusillade of rifle and shotgun shell explosions awakened the early residents of the Garden Village subdivision in Colma early Wednesday as a prelude to a $10,000 fire.

Charles O. Morgan, wealthy 49-year-old owner of the Mutual Assurance Co., was awakened before dawn by an explosion in the attic of his home at 121 Garden Lane.

He was met by a charge of buckshot as he opened the attic door. He hastily retired in his slippers and pajamas as three cases of shot gun shells and several boxes of rifle ammunition exploded almost simultaneously.

Several pellets from the shot gun shells superficially penetrated his right forearm. He was sent home after treatment at Junipero Serra Hospital.

A next door neighbor phoned the Colma Fire Dept. and the screaming of sirens added to the confusion of neighbors peering cautiously out their windows.

Colma firemen battled the blaze for an hour and a half, bringing it under control just after sunrise. Damage was confined to the upper floor.

Louis Nannini, fire chief, said the cause of the blaze was unknown. The heat detonated the stored ammunition.

Granger Urges Sign Changes

A long-range program looking to the gradual elimination of protruding street signs was advocated at a Redwood City council session this week by Councilman Floyd D. Granger.

Granger said that the city would attempt gradually to have all street signs placed flush with buildings rather than to have them hang out over sidewalks.

The councilman also urged some kind of ordinance concerning signs which would bring revenue to the city. His discussion was prompted by a report by Bldg. Insp. L. M. Duncan that a billboard on Bayshore Hwy. is still standing although the council has requested the owners, Foster & Kleiser, to tear it down. Council voted to have City Atty. Cuthbert Currie write the firm asking the sign's removal. If that fails, council voted, legal action will be in order.

Chief Lodi Warns Of Anti-Fireworks Law

Fire Chief Joe Lodi warned today that under a state law there can be no fireworks in California.

As the Fourth of July neared, he said that no person can sell, manufacture or own fireworks except sparklers and caps for toy guns which can be sold if the retailer can obtain a permit from the fire department.

RC TO GO WESTERN

Between June 19 and the end of the July 4 celebration and rodeo Redwood City residents will be required to appear on the streets in Western garb. The city council last night adopted a resolution to this effect.

San Carlos Burglar Given One Year in County Jail

A 23-year-old man while on probation for passing bad checks stole $1150 worth of jewelry from a San Carlos home this week was sentenced to a year in the county jail.

Robert F. Gibree was meted out the jail term by Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton, before whom he had pleaded guilty to a grand theft charge.

Gibree first was arrested in January for passing four bad checks on Redwood City business establishments. He pleaded guilty, and was put on three years' probation.

A few days after receiving probation, Gibree went to the home of R. W. Stein, 1904 Carmelita Ave., San Carlos, to visit a baby sitter. When he left, he took the jewelry with him. He was rearrested on Mar. 24.

Other cases in superior court:

Thomas E. Caliborne, 32-year-old San Lorenzo bank clerk, was given probation for three years on a robbery charge and warned by Judge Edmund Scott that he faced San Quentin if he violated probation.

Caliborne had pleaded guilty to holding up two men on Mar. 5 in the House and Garden Store, 769 Laurel St., San Carlos. Although no gun was displayed during the robbery, the victims believed Caliborne was armed, for he kept his hand in his pocket and made a clicking noise.

William Stone, 25-year-old Negro laborer who lives at 42 Hazel St., pleaded not guilty to robbery and his trial was set for June 29 before Judge Scott. Stone is accused of the strongarm robbery of Victor A. Danieli, 420 Heller St., after a card game at the Five Points Hotel on May 15.

Phillip K. Wallick, 21, of 2301 Beverly St., Palo Alto, pleaded guilty to the burglary of the Hiatt Brothers Welding Co., 1001 Terminal Way, San Carlos, on Apr. 17. He asked for probation and is to be sentenced by Judge Cotton on June 21. Wallick took a grinder from under a bench in the burglary, officers said.

Salvatore Margiotta, 39-year-old Los Altos bricklayer, was fined $250 and put on probation for a year for contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old Negro girl. Margiotta had pleaded guilty. The offense occurred in March, in the Dumbarton Oaks area.

Roy Kaiser, 52, a former San Mateo automobile salesman and cook, pleaded guilty to two counts of passing bad checks totaling $35.

Board Studies Countrywide Road Tax

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors this week took under consideration a request that a county-wide road tax be set up for the upkeep of heavily-traveled intercity streets.

The road tax was proposed by officials of various cities in the county who conferred in caucus with the board of supervisors.

Chmn. Alvin S. Hatch said that the board would not consider allocating part of the funds received from the state as gasoline tax rebates. Nor would the supervisors consider a proposal that the special road tax be made applicable only to the unincorporated area.

The new tax, if passed, would apply to all parts of the county, incorporated and unincorporated area together, Hatch said.

It would be used for the upkeep of those streets in each city which take the brunt of the travel between the various municipalities.

One of the matters to be determined if the supervisors put the tax through is what streets should be allocated funds.

Truck Seeking Crash... Finds It

A tow truck looking for an accident on Skyline Blvd. found one—head-on.

The California Highway Patrol reported that the truck, driven by William L. Privette, 25, of Millbrae, collided with a car operated by Otto B. Bergstrom, 46, a San Francisco insurance man.

Privette, officers said, was cruising along Skyline Blvd. near Sneath Ln., San Bruno, trying to locate a car which had crashed into a ditch.

Mrs. Emilie Lassale, San Francisco, an occupant of Bergstrom's car, was slightly injured. The accident occurred at 9:40 p.m. yesterday.

Spinas, Tucker At Optimist Meet

Andrew Spinas, superintendent of Redwood City Elementary School Dist., told members of the Optimist Club Tuesday the need for raising the permissive tax rate for the school district from 90 cents to $1.50.

The special election is being held today.

Tommy Tucker, sound effects man from Hollywood, entertained at yesterday's meeting.

The Optimist Club will sponsor a Western show at the Sequoia Theater July 2 as part of the Fourth of July. celebration. Four headline Western acts will be presented at the free show.

RC Bookie Given Fine, Probation

John Sylvio Facchino, a Redwood City bookie, this week was sentenced by Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton to pay a $300 fine and was placed on probation for one year.

Judge Cotton termed the fine a sort of "reparation."

Facchino, 39, lives at 1039 University Dr., Menlo Park. He was arrested by Redwood City police at Rocky's Cigar Store, 709 El Camino Real, on Mar. 19. Police seized various horse race gambling paraphernalia. Facchino pleaded guilty three weeks ago.

The sentence followed the recommendation of Probation Officer John S. Cowgill, who had urged that Facchino be made to pay a minimum fine of $300.

Cowgill also told the judge that Facchino up to two years ago had operated a phonograph and amusement machine company. After selling that business, he operated a Los Angeles night club and restaurant.

That business was sold about five months ago, after Facchino lost $40,000 in it, Cowgill reported.

Objection Lands EPA Man in Jail

A 35-year-old East Palo Alto mechanical engineer landed in county jail this week after he objected too strenuously to the operation of an air hammer near his home.

Robert Edlefsen, 1050 Weeks St., was arrested at the county jail in the afternoon when he appeared to get a complaint against the Durant Insulated Pipe Co., 1015 Runnymede Ave., which he claimed was working on Sunday morning and had disturbed his sleep and that of his baby.

Waiting at the county jail for Edlefsen was a warrant for his arrest on a charge of malicious mischief.

According to the sheriff's office, Edlefsen went to the pipe firm's property and demanded of Harry Taylor, 1062 Runnymede Ave., that he stop work with the air hammer. He backed up his demand by taking the hammer away from Taylor.

Guy Payne, 62, 1920 Clark Ave., East Palo Alto, another pipe company employe, went to Taylor's aid. The sheriff's office stated that Edlefsen punched Payne in the mouth, whereupon Taylor called the officers.

While Taylor was in Redwood City signing a complaint against Edlefsen, a brickbat was thrown through the pipe company's window, allegedly by Edlefsen. When the officers went to the latter's home he was not there.

Sequoia Board Checks Ballot

A canvass of the vote of the May 21 Sequoia High School election last Friday by the high school board of trustees gave the two elected trustees, Merritt Hosmer and Charles Burgess an additional 50 vote margin over Donald R. Lilly.

The official returns gave Hosmer 3585 votes, Burgess 4694 votes, and Lily 3073. The unofficial totals after the election had given Lilly 3123 votes.

According to Supt. L. C. Argo, 20 write-in votes were tallied by the board. Miles McAndrew received 13 votes; Thomas C. Mulligan, 4; and W. W. Hilton, Harry Chamberlain and Robert Day, one vote each.

Official totals including three absentee ballots on the bond issue and special tax proposals were as follows:

Special tax — Yes, 5173; No, 1227.

Bond issue—Yes, 5418; No, 1028.

Councilmen Take Caution In Voting Budget Switches

Redwood City Councilman Floyd D. Granger and Carl (Ike) Britschgi this week stood forth as strong advocates of tight budgets.

It all came about when Richard Miller, acting city clerk, read a routine resolution which council was asked to approve. The resolution would have made transfers within the fiscal budget for 1947-48. At this time of year the city is coming to the end of its budget period and normally it finds that certain accounts are low and others high. Some funds are used up and need more money and others have not been spent as rapidly as expected. To tide over until the new budget period which begins July 1, it has been the custom to do a little juggling.

Granger said he was not going to approve the resolution because he needed more time to study the suggestions. Britschgi said he couldn't see why department heads couldn't stick to their budgets.

Both intimated that some items which are cut from the budget by the council turn up in these last minute jugglings.

City Assessor John J. Brophy then volunteered to explain each transfer, which he did. While this was in process, Fire Chief Joe Lodi indicated he was offended by the councilmen's action. He said that his department ran a $90,000-a-year budget and that this year had missed by only $300. He said he didn't think department heads who came that close were to be criticized.

Councilman Albert H. Morgan Jr. agreed. He said he'd like to have a man like that in his business. Councilman Robert V. (Bob) Spillers urged that the council stop rehashing the resolution and approve it. This wasn't done.

When the council got all through hearing Brophy's explanation, it deleted one transfer—decided not to transfer $23.31, which would clean out one account, to the street department.

Housewife Gets Probation In Hearing Involving Youth

Mrs. Kathryn M. Butelo, Redwood City housewife who has pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old boy, was put on three years' probation this week.

She also was ordered to comply with a list of recommendations made by Probation Officer John S. Cowgill, including to "dress at all times with propriety."

The 32-year-old woman, who lives at 642 Scott Ave., was sentenced by Judge Aylett R. Cotton in juvenile court.

The offenses, Cowgill stated, occurred between March and December last year. The probation officer added that neither the boy nor his parents were blameless in the matter, the latter by failing to exercise sufficient control over their son.

The following specific terms of probation, suggested by Cowgill, were incorporated into the judgment.

1. That Mrs. Butelo stay away from the boy's home.
2. That no young people be allowed to visit her home unless both she and her husband are present.
3. That she get a job.
4. That she refrain from drinking.
5. That she dress with propriety at all times.

$100,000 Suit Filed Here In Accident

A $100,000 personal injury suit was filed today in superior court here by James H. Legg of Belmont against Robert Ballard of Pescadero and the Southern Pacific Railroad Co.

In his complaint Legg stated that he has been "permanently maimed and scarred" as the result of an accident which occurred on the morning of Apr. 22.

He stated in his complaint that he was standing on the platform of the Belmont train station waiting for an approaching commuter train to stop so he could entrain. But Ballard drove his automobile across the tracks at the Ralston Ave. intersection, about 100 feet from the station, and right into the path of the oncoming train.

The train rammed the automobile and threw it 90 feet into the crowd of commuters waiting for the train on the platform. Legg said the car hit him and as a result he suffered a skull fracture, brain concussion, broken left arm and numerous cuts and bruises.

There were four people injured in the accident, Legg, Ballard, Thomas Peterson and Stanley Brooks, both of Belmont.

Peterson filed a similar suit recently.

IOOF Honors 50-Year Member

Bayview Lodge 109, I.O.O.F. will hold a dinner tonight in honor of Arthur Nelson, who has been a member of the organization for the past 50 years.

A 50-year jewel will be presented to Nelson following the dinner, Noble Grand Darwin E. Martin declared. Nelson joined the lodge in May, 1898, and will be the only living member of Bayview Lodge possessing such a jewel.

Nelson, who lives at 525 Vera Ave., has been a Redwood City resident for 55 years, and is a retired employe of the S. H. Frank tannery.

Forrest M. Taylor Held on Driving Count

Forrest M. Taylor, 29, 1996 Carmelita Ave., San Carlos, a carpenter, was arrested Sunday by Redwood City police on a charge of drunken driving.

He was apprehended at 5:15 p.m. at Woodside Rd. and San Carlos Ave. He was taken to the San Mateo County jail and later released on $250 bail. Police Officer Clyde Genochio said that Taylor has been convicted of a similar charge in 1944.

Supervisors May OK Annex Lease

Tentative plans were made this week by the County Board of Supervisors to continue lease of the Community Hospital annex to Mills Memorial Hospital until the sanatorium building program begins.

At the request of Dr. Harry Mason, president of the County Medical Society, the board agreed to consider continuing the lease, with the clause that Mills would be given 60 days to vacate.

The county is planning to use the annex to house tuberculosis patients while construction of the new $1,500,000 sanatorium is under way at Canyon Sanatorium.

Reluctantly, the board members agreed to Dr. Mason's request for continuing the lease which expires at the end of this month. The board is to make the offer of extension to Mills Hospital authorities at an early date.

Chmn. Alvin S. Hatch pointed out that there are 20 tuberculosis patients in Community Hospital. About 18 others are housed at California Sanatorium at a weekly cost of more than $50 each, he said.

The county needs the annex for these patients, particularly since the architects have predicted that the sanatorium construction would be under way in six months. Supervisor Henry W. Edmonds said that a temporary building next to the annex also has been proposed for taking care of patients during the construction period.

Hatch asked Dr. Mason whether the bed space created in Community Hospital by removal of tuberculosis patients would not alleviate the bed shortage for private patients. Dr. Mason replied that it would, but not for the next 10 months.

He said that certain unexplained conditions which existed under the regime of Dr. Charles C. Gans would not be straightened out until about that time.

Dr. Mason cast doubt whether construction of the new sanatorium would start within six months, as expected by the architects, pointing to the time it is taking to get construction of the Sequoia Dist. Hospital under way.

Edmonds declared that before construction could start on the sanatorium, the patients would have to be moved. This removal was expected by Supervisor Martin Poss to take about 60 days, and added that he didn't think that Mills Hospital would be able to keep the annex as long as Dr. Mason expected.

Supervisor Edward R. McDonald declared that he was in favor of letting Mills have the building as long as possible.

The Burlingame-San Mateo-Hillsborough chapter of the American Assn. of University Women also was represented at the informal meeting, and went on record favoring the continuation of the lease to Mills.

Frank Cooley Dies in NPA

Frank Sutton Cooley, 76-year-old brother of C. P. Cooley, Santa Clara County supervisor from Palo Alto, died yesterday at his home at 102 Pope St., North Palo Alto.

Mr. Cooley, a retired rancher and construction man, had been ill for some time. He was a native of Palo Alto.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Franklin, Crowe and Lorentzen Chapel with the Rev. Donald Hall of the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment will follow at the family plot in Union Cemetery.

Mr. Cooley was the husband of the late Mrs. Mary E. Cooley.

39 Residents of SM County Admitted to U.S. Citizenship

Superior Judge Edmund Scott during the weekend admitted 36 San Mateo County residents to United States citizenship in a ceremony at his Redwood City courtroom.

It was the largest citizenship class in the county in many years.

The new citizens, who had all satisfactorily passed their examinations, were welcomed by Lt. H. M. Dye, USN.

Twenty Jefferson Union High School students attended the ceremony, accompanied by their instructor, John Morgan.

Two applicants for citizenship were denied, five cases were continued and one repatriation case was continued.

The list of new citizens, by cities, follows:

Burlingame — Redente Joseph Grossutti, Frank Lee, Nicole L. J. Orr, Marie Wilson.

San Mateo—Panagiota Tsavalas, Carmen A. Gellidon, Delia M. Mumm, Theodore L. Basco, Arthur E. Bessey, Kyriakoula Smyrnos, Amalia R. Severo, Louis F. S. Boris, Marie K. Scheger.

Redwood City—Rufina Thompson, Gusdof P. Ziegler, Angiolina Repetti, Victoria Costa, Giuseppina Pastorino.

Menlo Park—Jose L. Garbez, Gabriel Magabilin, Gertrude Magabilin, Joan Smith, Joseph Duncan.

Daly City—Fenisia Rossi, Virgilio Rossi, Pierina Molinari.

Atherton—Mary R. McRae.

Colma—Giacomo De Mattei.

Half Moon Bay—Alejandro B. Rualo.

San Bruno — Josephine B. Reyes, Charles Littau.

Pescadero—Pia M. Campinotti, Joe P. Panis.

South San Francisco—Vittorio Zanatta, Teresina Di Piero.

San Carlos—Edith Beck.

Memorial Day Observance Services, Parade Highlight

More than 200 persons attended the annual Memorial Day ceremonies Monday morning in the Sequoia Theater. The ceremonies were followed by a parade from the theater to Union Cemetery, where services in honor of the war dead were held.

Assemblyman Richard Dolwig gave the main address at the theater services. Dolwig warned that the nations of the world were heading down the road toward war again and that it should not be forgotten that this country entered the last war to bring about lasting peace.

False prophets in this country are teaching foreign doctrines under the cloak of liberalism, he declared, adding that "we have a duty to prevent this country from becoming involved in another war."

Floyd Granger acted as master of ceremonies at the program and Mayor William Werder presented a short address.

Hundreds of people stood on downtown Redwood City streets to watch the parade. Units of all Redwood City veteran's groups as well as representatives of other civic organizations, the Boy Scouts, and local school groups were represented.

Wayne R. Millington presented an address to the "Unknown Dead" at the Union Cemetery services. National colors were raised by the Boy Scouts while the Sequoia High School band played the Star Spangled Banner.

Memorial Day services were also held Monday at Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

The services were arranged by the United Veterans Coordinating Committee of San Mateo County. T. Louis Chess was master of ceremonies.

Main speaker at the Golden Gate Cemetery services was Congressman Jack Z. Anderson.

Family Periled In Burlingame Fire

A pre-dawn fire gutted the Swedish massage studio of R. H. Sanderson at 1200 Capuchino Ave., Burlingame, early today and perilled the four families living upstairs and asleep when the blaze started.

The fire, apparently started by an overheated electric blanket left plugged in last night, broke out on the bed in one of the small cubicles in which the studio's patrons receive treatment.

In practically no time, the bed, with its blankets and sheets was consumed and the fire burned on into a closet, filled with linen, which was destroyed.

Meantime, in her upstairs bedroom. Mrs. Regina Burchen felt the heat and smelled the smoke and awakened her 19-year-old son, Robert, who shares the apartment with her.

Folk Dancers Fete Mrs. Jean Cloud

Members of the Sequoia Adult Night School class in folk dancing concluded their term of dancing lessons last week with a party for Instructor Mrs. Jean Cloud.

Classes have been held weekly in the Lincoln School auditorium, with Mrs. Cloud in charge.

Last week's affair included a review of the many folk and square dances learned during the year. Following the dancing refreshments were served in the school cafeteria Approximately 25 couples were on hand to honor Mrs. Cloud.

Policeman Loses Job; Shoots Self

Charles H. (Tommy) Thomas, 47, veteran Burlingame police officer, shot and killed himself Tuesday, a few hours after he had been suspended from the force and turned in his resignation.

His wife Fern found his body slumped in the front seat of their car, parked in the garage of the apartment where they lived at 1440 Floribunda Ave. just before 6 p.m.

Death was caused by a .25 calibre bullet fired into the officer's right temple. The automatic pistol still was clutched in his hands when Police Chief R. C. (Jack) Theuer and Coroner William Crosby arrived.

One daughter, in addition to his wife, survives. She is Mrs. Jean Reynolds, Menlo Park.

Chief Theuer suspended Thomas from the force yesterday morning on charges of conduct unbecoming a police officer and then accepted the officer's resignation, exact nature of the charges was not specified and the chief said today they would not be.

The chief said investigation had borne out charges of serious misconduct but that he thought no purpose would be served in detailing the charges now.

Thomas had been on the force for 19 years.

Mrs. Thomas, hysterical after discovering her husband's body, told Carl Swan, husband of the apartment house manager, that Thomas had gone to the garage to get his belongings he had brought home from his police station locker. When he did not return she went to investigate and discovered the tragedy.

The suicide apparently was motivated by worries over personal and financial difficulties, aggravated by the suspension order and resultant resignation.

Thomas was a navy veteran of World War I. He was one of the most active members of Burlingame American Legion Post 163, where he had last year set a record by signing up more than 100 new members.

He was widely known as a bowler, having been a member of several teams.

Hard-cooked eggs can be used many ways for delicious supper dishes. Couple them with a well seasoned cream sauce and then add sliced sauteed mushrooms and serve over toast. Or frizzle some dried beef in hot butter or fortified margarine until it is lightly browned and add it to the eggs and cream sauce; serve over crisp croutons.

Sequoia Names New Teachers For Next Year, Pair Retires

The appointment of seven new teachers for the 1948-49 year has been announced by Supt. A. C. Argo. Five members of the faculty, including two retirements, have resigned and three are on leaves of absence.

Retiring are Juliane Wolters, vice principal, and Charles Brown, physics instructor. Corinne Hubbard, assistant librarian, Eva Newman, art, and Dorothy Anton, Spanish, have resigned.

MISS MARTHA KEEFE, right, was presented with a set of matched luggage by Mrs. D. G. Berglund yesterday afternoon at tea for 100 given by the Sequoia District Girl Scout Council at the Woodside home of Mrs. David D. Bohannon. Miss Keefe, who is executive director of the district, has resigned her post after two years' work here. Mrs. Berglund, past commander of the district, made the presentation in behalf of Girl Scouts of the district and others who have worked with Miss Keefe.

100 Attend Tea Given By District Scout Council

More than 100 scout leaders, coleaders, past officers and others interested in scouting were the guests at a tea given yesterday by the Sequoia District Girl Scout Council at the home of Mrs. David D. Bohannon in Woodside.

Mrs. D. G. Berglund, past commander of this district, acted as toastmistress and presented Miss Martha Keefe with a set of matched luggage as a gift of appreciation from the scouts.

Miss Keefe has been executive director of the district for the past two years, but has resigned her position recently to return to her home in Ohio about Aug. 15.

Past commissioners presided at the table. They included Mrs. David Sheppard, Mrs. M. G. Paterson, Mrs. J. Roy, Mrs. H. Coykendall and Mrs. George Metlar.

During the afternoon guests were entertained with accordion music furnished by Vern Schath, son of Mrs. Victor Schath, a member of the established camp committee.

Rebekahs Elect New Officers At Meeting

New officers for the coming year were elected on Tuesday evening by the Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge. They will be installed on Sunday, June 13.

New officers are Hallie Stone, noble grand; Marthene Partidos, vice grand; Katherne Martin, recording secretary; Bessie Vernall, financial secretary; Jennie Worth, treasurer; and Mabel Foster, trustee.

Ruth Rogers, outgoing noble grand, will give a party for her officers at the next meeting on June 22.

Two new members were initiated at the meeting Tuesday night. They were Paul Lorentzen and Wyley E. Perry.

Rebekah brothers of Bayview Lodge were in charge of refreshments for the evening.

Dave Fredrickson To Receive Degree From UC Saturday

David Allen Fredrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fredrickson, will receive his AB degree in archeology from the University of California at Berkeley on Saturday.

Dave graduated from Sequoia High School with the class of 1944. While at Sequoia he was active in sports and was champion of his division in wrestling. He also received his "block" in wrestling at UC.

During the war he was in the navy's V-5 program for one year.

Dave's sister, Ruth Fredrickson, who is teaching school in Merced, is expected to be home in time to attend the commencement exercises with Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson.

St. Anthony's Club Holds Rummage Sale

St. Anthony's Club of St. Anthony's Mission Church, North Fair Oaks, will hold a rummage sale today and tomorrow at the church.

The sale began at 10 a.m. today and is being held at the church in North Fair Oaks. Furniture, clothes and other worthwhile items will be for sale, states Mrs. E. P. Thiele, chairman.

Sequoia High School Band To Give Open Air Concert

Members of the school band at Sequoia High School will give their first open air concert on Wednesday from 8 to 9 p.m. on the graduation platform, it was announced today.

The concert will be directed by Robert Smith and will be free to the public.

Band numbers include "There's Something About a Soldier," a descriptive patrol by Gay; "Belle of the Ball," a medley of folk tunes by Hummel; and "The Little Brown Jug," a novelty by Burgeim with Bob Freese of Redwood City as piccolo soloist.

"This latter piece," said Mr. Smith, "is interesting as it features the antics of a piccolo player who is continually robbed of his solos."

Classical selections will include Paderewski's celebrated "Minuet"; a Latin-American number, "Argentina" by Buchtel; "Estudiantina," a waltz by Wanderfel; and "Meadowlands" by Kuipper.

To highlight the evening, a trumpet quartet will play "Silver Threads Among the Gold" by Danks, accompanied by the band.

Concluding the concert, the band will play the fast moving "Boogie Woogie Band"

Zonta Club Attends BPWC Meet, Hears Talk by Rev. Boes

Members of the Redwood City Business and Professional Women's Club invited members of the Zonta Club to join them at their regular business meeting last night to hear a talk by the Rev. Peter Boes, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Rev. Mr. Boes spoke on the United Nations appeal for children and showed a sound movie of the starving children in Europe and Asia.

At the business meeting which followed the talk, four new members were voted into the club. New members are Marjorie Silliman, Inez Cochran, Helen Moore and Irene O'Neill.

Reports were given on the national convention in Santa Cruz by delegates Vera Griffith, Catherine Brennan and Helen Harper, president of the BPWC.

Mrs. Mary Thorning announced that the next meeting of the book review section would be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 16, at the Redwood City Library. Several books will be reviewed and Miss Wilhelmina Harper, city librarian, will show the members through the library.

The next dinner meeting of the club will be held at the Three Owls Cafe on Wednesday, June 23, with a surprise program promised by Olive Kogelschatz, chairman. Mrs. Kogelschatz urges all members to "go western" for the evening.

Menlo Players' Guild Gives Opening Performance of 'Old Time Mellerdrammer'

BY IRENE BRENNAN
Tribune Society Editor

Virtue triumphed over evil — the good were rewarded, the bad punished — and the audience thoroughly enjoyed itself last night at the opening performance of the Menlo Players Guild "old time mellerdrammer," "Bertha the Beautiful Typewriter Girl."

Part of the success of last night's opening performance must be attributed to audience participation. The villain was properly hissed and booed and the hero and heroine were applauded. Members of the audience often interrupted the play with such advice as "Don't you do it, Bertha" and "Look Out! He's standing behind you."

The plot of the play centers around the efforts of an unscrupulous banker, Danel Desmond, to hide the fact that he has stolen the fortune in diamonds belonging to the heroine and her mother.

Bertha, the heroine, unwittingly takes a job as Desmond's typist, believing she is poor and must support her mother. Bertha then meets and falls in love with the hero, David Desmond, the banker's son.

Complications arise when the villain falls in love with Bertha, and she refuses his proposal of marriage.

The villain in turn tries to kill her, but she is saved in the "nick of time" by the hero.

The play reaches a climax when Villain Desmond is confronted with proof that he stole the diamonds, by Bridget O'-Casey, a mysterious character, who in reality is a secret service agent and Bertha's long lost uncle.

As the curtain goes down, Villain Desmond is being carried off to jail, an evil bank employe has been reformed, and Bertha and David are making plans to "live happily everafter."

Jack Hayes as Daniel Desboro Desmond, was worthy of the best of the audience's hisses as the villain, complete with Inverness cape and black frock coat.

Margaret Moore as Bertha also was well cast in her role as the modest typewriter girl.

However, it was Michael Halus who seemed to be the audience favorite, as David Desmond, the hero. Part of his success was undoubtedly due to his asides to the audience and to his costume, a dated checked suit with lavender cravat and matching handkerchief.

Vince Cleveland as Glenwood Garfield, the bank employe, is not new to Menlo Players Guild productions, but he seems to turn in consistently fine performances in all of his roles.

Others in the cast were Robert Clark, Fred Slater, Mrs. Betty Hayes, Mrs. Cope Garrity, Miss Betty Claire Forster and George Ford, who played Bridget O'-Casey.

In keeping with the Gay Nineties spirit there were olio acts between the scenes and the usherettes and vendors were dressed in costume.

"Bertha" will be given again tonight, tomorrow night, Saturday and Sunday in the Stanford Village Little Theater. The curtain will rise at 8:30.

Knights of Columbus Council 1346 Wins Top State Award

At the recent state convention of the Knights of Columbus in Santa Barbara it was announced San Mateo Council 1346 was awarded the "Best Council" trophy for accomplishment during the council year ending June 30, 1948. Grand Knight Raymond Greene received the trophy for San Mateo Council.

Delegates to the convention attending from San Mateo included; Past Grand Knight and Present District Deputy Joseph Cullen, and Past Krand Knights John P. Kenneally and Edward Jurgenson.

The award is given each year to the council which best exemplifies the spirit of Columbianism as shown by the progress each council makes toward the fulfillment of the Knights of Columbus Five Point Program.

This year, for the third consecutive time, San Mateo Council received the Century Club award for enrolling 100 new members. The council was given special recognition for its civic, religious and social programs, and for its work with 'teen-age boys through the boyology department of the Knights of Columbus known as the Columbian Squires.

Two West Pointers From State Grab Brides

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Two Californians were among a group of 18 of the U. S. military academy's graduating class who were married yesterday immediately after receiving their second lieutenants' bars.

They were:

James G. McCray, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCray of Merced, who was married to Mary Christine Stevens, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Neil Stevens of Champaign, Ill., and Walter E. Meinten, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Meinten of Oakland, who married Katherine B. Codling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Codling of College Point, N.Y.

See The Difference In These Two Rib Roasts

(It may help you save an important part of your meat bill)

INCLUDES END SECTION OF SHORT RIBS
(these short ribs, of course, contain some meat — but it's not rib roast meat!)

RIB ROAST UNTRIMMED BEFORE WEIGHING
... as some markets here weigh it for pricing

WOMEN INVESTIGATORS WERE AMAZED at the old-fashioned way many markets here sell meat! For example: Shoppers sent out by an independent research organization bought rib roasts at markets all over this area. They discovered that 94% of these markets (other than Safeway) DID NOT TRIM THEIR ROASTS BEFORE WEIGHING. Some trimmed AFTER weighing—but this after-weighing trim didn't save the customers from paying for the chine bone and short ribs. Have YOU been buying meat this expensive way? If you can't get your market to trim BEFORE weighing, come to Safeway and get money-savings that the modern meat-trimming method offers!

Roasts Like These Were Bought In This Area At The Same Price Per Pound In Recent Test-Purchase Survey

INCLUDES HEAVY CHINE BONE
(for which the customer is asked to pay at the regular rib roast price per pound . . . even though chine bone may be removed AFTER weighing)

END SECTION OF SHORT RIBS REMOVED BEFORE WEIGHING
(Safeway sells these separately, at a lower cost per pound)

Safeway believes all markets should retail meat this common-sense way—with excess bone, fat and waste-parts trimmed off before the meat is weighed. More and more good markets are doing it. Why don't you ask your market man to trim your next rib roast before he weighs it?

SAFEWAY TRIMMED-BEFORE-WEIGHING RIB ROAST
... trimmed so you pay for only the tender "heart" portion that cooks and carves better

MONEY-SAVINGS OF 54¢ TO $1.20 per typical 6-pound rib roast are secured by many housewives who purchase trimmed-before-weighing meats, the test survey reveals! In a few weeks of meat-buying such savings can go a long way to cut down the high cost of living for your family. You are entitled to GET THESE SAVINGS . . . because every market should trim meats BEFORE WEIGHING. No longer do you need to buy rib roasts, for example, on somebody else's say-so. The roast photos printed here show you what kind of trimming to look for. Take these photos to your market. Use them to check the next rib roast you purchase BEFORE it is weighed!

HEAVY CHINE BONE REMOVED BEFORE WEIGHING
(and replaced with a layer of fat, light in weight, to seal in meat juices)

THE SAFEWAY trimmed-before-weighing rib roast has in it the kind of meat people want in rib roasts. NOT the short ribs—which should be cut off and sold at proper short rib prices. NOT the heavy chine bone—which should be cut off and thrown away.

Most every good cook and good market man knows rib roasts should be trimmed as Safeway does it . . . before weighing!

The savings cited here on rib roast are typical of the savings you make on every cut and kind of meat that's trimmed as Safeway does it—before weighing. You save on chops and steaks, on leg of lamb and other cuts—when each cut is trimmed before weighing according to its special requirements. Wherever you buy, insist on pocketing for yourself the money-savings this better trimming method brings you.

Safeway buys nothing less than the top government grades of beef . . . nothing less than the top grades of lamb, pork and veal. All Safeway meats are properly aged—brought to you at peak perfection.

Come try trimmed-before-weighing meats at Safeway. Note our special Two-Rib-Roast Offer printed at right.

SAFEWAY'S OFFER: We will give you 2 rib roasts at no cost if ever you get from us a rib roast NOT trimmed before weighing! Just show the meat to the manager of the Safeway store where you bought it. We won't quibble or argue. We want you to have extra rib roasts without cost if we fail to trim as we say!
